ONLINE SELF-PACED TRAINING

This training provides you with the skills necessary to successfully use PTC's online learning system D2L. The Self-Paced Training Course is designed to act as both an orientation to D2L as well as a resource you can access at any point throughout your time at PTC. Video tutorials and guides will introduce you to the different features of D2L. You will also have the ability to interact with the learning environment by completing sample activities.

To participate in the online Self-Paced Training Course click on the Resources menu on the D2L home page and select Self-Registration.

Course opens August 1, 2014.
