List yourself, your parent(s) (including step-parent, if parent is remarried), your siblings and anyone who lives with your parent(s) that will receive more than half of their support from them between July 1, 2013 and June 2014. If you list siblings 24 years or older, and/or people other than your parent’s dependents on this form and your parent(s) provide more than half of their support, a Statement of Relationship must be provided on the back page of this form. Foster children should not be included in the household size.
- Independent Student:
List the names of the people that you will support between July 1, 2013, and June 30, 2014. Please include your spouse and your dependents. A Statement of Relationship must be provided on the back page of this form for all others that live with you and receive more than half of their support from you. Foster children should not be included in the household size.

Write the name of the college for any household member listed who will be enrolled at least half time (6 or more hours) between July 1, 2013 and June 30, 2014.

Note:

If members of the household, such as a grandparent, receive benefits in their own names, those benefits are not reported as income on your FAFSA. If they receive benefits in their own name that amount to more than half of their own support, these people cannot be included in the household size.
