

Constitution Day

Each year on September 17th, Piedmont Technical College celebrates Constitution Day. Typical events include a display in the college's library, a Constitution Day quiz and a voter registration drive.

In 2012, a promotional video was created and is posted on Youtube: http://youtu.be/1nDy8l_DBgM

In 2013, there was a presentation by Mike Beckom

In 2014 there was a presentation by Cami Westall

If you are interested in learning more about Constitution Day, check out <http://www.constitutionday.cc>

Celebrate!

Constitution Day 2014

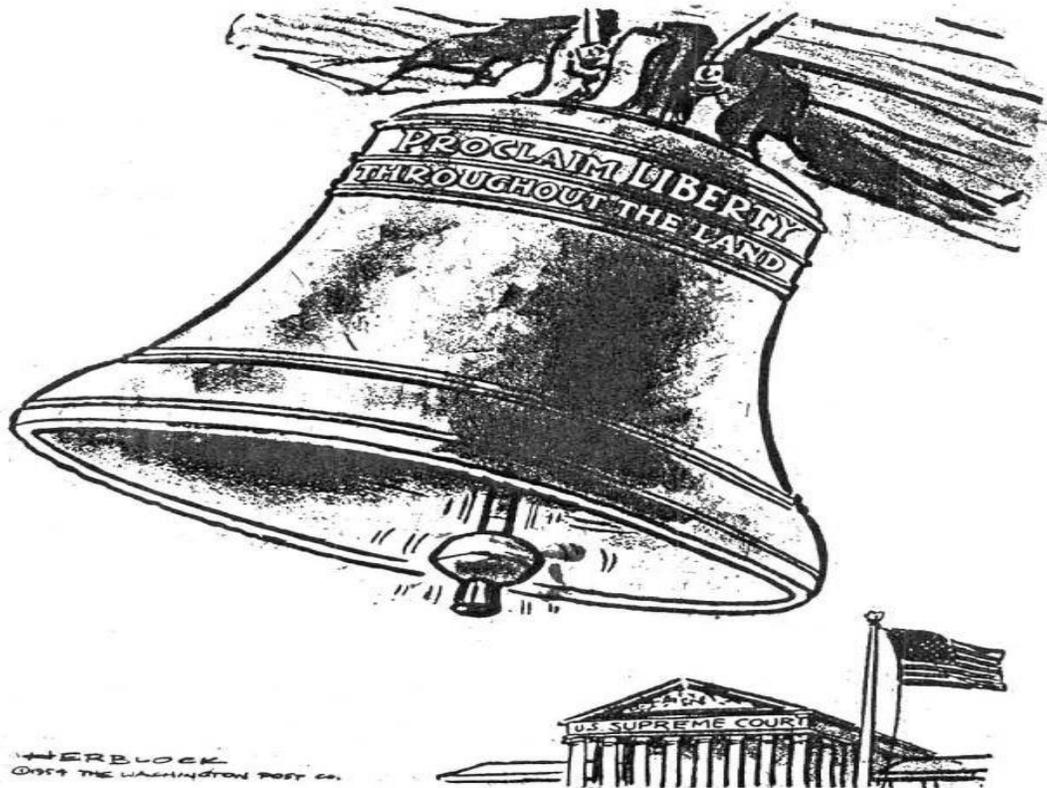

The 227th anniversary of our nation's founding document

On September 17, in celebration of Constitution Day, the library will welcome Cami Westall, PTC History Instructor. She will present on Frederick Douglass and the Reconstruction Amendments. The program will be held at 12:45 pm.

While in the Library, check out the traveling exhibit featuring Frederick Douglass on display in the PTC Library until October 3rd.

School Bell

According to Wikipedia, an editorial cartoonist, also known as a political cartoonist, is an artist who draws editorial cartoons that contain some level of political or social commentary.

Check out “We the People: Herblock on Democracy” which is a traveling exhibit featuring cartoons and commentary by Herbert Block on display in the PTC Library until the end of September.

Also, on September 17, in celebration of Constitution Day, the library will welcome Mike Beckom, a PTC graduate who is a local cartoonist. He will present on the art of editorial cartooning. The program will be held at 12:45 pm.